1. FOREWORD

We are three women from Ostrava, Czech Republic: Radka, Táňa, and Šárka. Each of us brings a wealth of experience and dedication to our respective fields. Radka and Táňa specialize in project management for charitable and humanitarian initiatives, working with both domestic organizations and large international institutions. Šárka is passionate about sports, promoting individual responsibility and global awareness. Beyond collaborating on external projects, we have also always created and implemented our own endeavors.

Our team was then joined by Sabina, a friend with a Czech mother and a Yemeni father. In her twenties, she moved to Yemen, where she found the love of her life, married, and is now raising three children with her husband Khalid. For several years, they have been living amidst the raging war, witnessing the horrors of famine and injustice firsthand.

And so, three elements converged: Šárka's projects resonating with thousands of people, particularly women, holding immense potential for solidarity. Táňa is an incredibly capable administrator with a kind heart, and Radka and Sabina yearn to provide tangible help, however small, but direct. Right, where it hurts the most because Radka knows Yemen well from her pre-war days working for the UN in the country, as well as from her current efforts in collaboration with Sabina to provide humanitarian aid to the local population. Sabina sees children dying of hunger every day with her own eyes.

We cannot save the 22 million people who need help. But together, we can raise funds for a small kitchen, rice, water, gas, and help as many people as possible in the immediate vicinity. At this time, we are focusing on Sabina's neighborhood in Sana'a, Yemen. Our goal is to assist the most vulnerable, regardless of their religion, ethnicity, or nationality.

In this endeavor, we are not alone. Our husbands, families, and friends also lend their support. They donate their time, labor, skills, and willingness to learn. Simply in whatever way they can. Because helping is human nature. And there is no need to explain why to help, but how. Therefore, I am here and we are preparing to cook a meal for Yemen. Next time, it could be anywhere else in the world. Together, we can make a difference.

2. 2023 IN FACTS

The year 2023 was marked by both challenges and significant achievements for our organization. Thanks to the generosity of our donors, the dedication of our volunteers, and the tireless work of our team, we made substantial progress in fulfilling our mission.

We gained new supporters who enabled us to expand our activities and reach more people in need. We continued to publish important materials that highlight our work and its impact, further raising awareness of our organization.

In 2023, we proudly focused on assisting those in need, particularly in Yemen, where we continued to develop our girls' snack program at the Sana'a Girls' School. This program ensures that girls receive a nutritious snack every day, which helps them concentrate in school and learn better. The program has been enthusiastically received by both students and their parents and has already had a tangible impact on their lives.

We are incredibly grateful for the support we received in 2023. It allows us to look to the future with optimism and even greater determination to fulfill our mission.

3. VISION, GOALS, AND THE MISSION

VISION

Yemen is currently grappling with the world's worst humanitarian catastrophe, facing the dire consequences of war, famine, and epidemics. A staggering 80% of Yemen's population, approximately 22 million people, are in dire need of humanitarian assistance due to the ongoing conflict. Food insecurity stands as one of the most pressing issues, with skyrocketing food prices fueled by a decline in food imports and the plummeting value of the Yemeni currency. Humanitarian organizations are struggling to meet the food needs of all those affected, pushing Yemen to the brink of famine.

The residents of the capital city, Sana'a, and those who have sought refuge there after losing their homes during the war, are particularly vulnerable to food shortages. Women, children, and the elderly, often without any means of income, are especially at risk of falling into a desperate situation where procuring food becomes an insurmountable challenge.

In the face of such immense suffering, where large populations struggle to survive due to unpredictable events like war or natural disasters, and lacking access to food, water, shelter, and financial resources, the structures that provide these basic necessities are often severely disrupted. In such circumstances, the help of a friend becomes indispensable.

This aid should transcend all boundaries, regardless of race, religion, or nationality. It should extend to those who lack even the most basic security, living in constant fear, unsure of who might harm them and how. Many have lost their homes and lack adequate healthcare, succumbing to preventable diseases. They have often lost family, close friends, and any sense of stability.

In these moments of despair, a friend can make a difference. We aspire to be that friend, creating opportunities for you to join us in extending a helping hand, wherever in the world it may be needed.

GOALS

During this critical period, the organization's primary goal is to provide basic, regular meals to the maximum number of people in extreme need in Sana'a, Yemen, and its surrounding areas. This will be achieved through a combination of public donations, crowdfunding, relevant grants, financial gifts, and sponsorships. All funds raised will be directly utilized to provide immediate assistance.

In addition to addressing the urgent food crisis, the organization also aims to support education for women and children who have been disproportionately affected by the conflict and raise awareness about Yemen in the Czech Republic. Yemen and the Czech Republic share an 80-year history of diplomatic relations. The organization seeks to build upon this strong foundation of cooperation and continue this longstanding tradition of support.

MISSION

We are driven by a shared desire to extend a helping hand to those in need, to provide immediate, direct, and effective assistance that makes a tangible difference. Our goal is to save lives, alleviate suffering, and rekindle hope in places where it seems lost. We operate with a deep understanding of the local context, establishing direct connections with those affected by the crisis.

Our commitment extends beyond financial compensation; we volunteer our time and expertise, driven by a profound sense of empathy and a shared responsibility to make a positive impact.

Together, we can make a difference in the lives of those facing immense challenges. Join us in our mission to bring relief and hope to Yemen.

Dear supporters of our organization, we would like to express our everlasting gratitude towards everybody who believed in us and helped people in Yemen. Every single donation you have sent is remarkable because, without you, we would not be able to do our jobs and bring our plans to fruition. From the bottom of our hearts, we thank everybody who reached out to us to join our cause, and together with the new cooperation, we are capable of following the ideas of Pomůžu jak můžu – capable of walking the path through which we deliver your help to people in need.

Namely, we would love to thank those contributing with their free time:

- Pavla Smetanová – a fierce warrior for Pomůžu jak můžu – for holding her auction, for fundraising, for spreading the word about direct help aimed at Yemen not only through social media, but also among people living on the island of Corfu where she resides, and for beautiful and spot-on texts about Sabine and her work.
- Martin Kettner – our web administrator and designer who is available to us whenever we need him.
- Interns from the University of Ostrava – translations, media monitoring, and communications with foreign partners and other assistance in the framework of the student's internship.
- Tomáš and Lucie Soták – thank you for significant financial help, support, and valuable advice.
- Martin Pražák – for professional help, inspiration, and continuing moral support
- Hana Volná and team ORS MZV – for willing professional consultation

And what are the possible ways to join our cause in the future?

It is literally impossible to offer you a trip to Yemen due to the current political situation. Besides donating money, it is always welcome to spread the word about our organization and our goals. We would be utterly thrilled to see any creativity in terms of communication, ideas about a new project, publishing informative articles, etc. We are open to start cooperation with your company that, for example, deals with printing promotional materials, business cards, and educational materials and their distribution. If you wish to share your ideas or know people who might help, give advice, or are the target audience for a certain kind of event, reach out to us via info@pomuzujakmuzu.cz. Become a voluntary promoter of our cause, of the idea to help people from your kitchen to our kitchen, and just inform people around you. We would love to support your own projects.
